

BoSch Data

Factsheet smartMAN

BoSch Data

BoSch Data GmbH is a certified Microsoft Dynamics partner, offering various solutions for Microsoft Dynamics Business Central. The applications range from individual modules/applications to large solution packages in the areas of soil, building materials, and commodities/shipping. The development was focused on good usability for users. New functions extend the scope of existing solutions or create new possibilities for the user.

BoSch Data – smartMAN App

With smartMAN App Microsoft Dynamics™ Business Central® will be extended with several ground functionalities. With the smartMAN App users should get more possibilities for using Microsoft Dynamics™ Business Central® regarding of real standard requirements. The smartMAN helps user to get better work with Microsoft Dynamics™ Business Central®. For example, usage out-of-the-box reports based on ISO DIN 5008, transit postings in banking management, document based interchange for intercompany or traffic lights for item availability in several modules. So, smartMAN App will extend the usability of Microsoft Dynamics™ Business Central®.

Using the smartMAN, you...

- will get more than one sales/purchase person at masterdata and documents
- alternative VAT ID at vendor order addresses
- unit of measure conversion
- text codes quantity based
- info boxes for user tasks
- enhanced field no. 2 in masterdata
- sales areas based on post codes per sales person
- price stability on price lists and documents
- prices on price lists per ship-to address or location code
- many many more...